The Missing Chapter

Untold Stories of the African American Presence in the Mid-Hudson Valley

PHILIP OF SULIVAN COUNTY

Thirty Dollars Reward.

AN away in October last, a yellow man, by the name of PHILIP, 22 years old, about feet 7 inches high, broad shouldered, stoops very much in his walk, one of his little toes has been cut off, speaks English and low Dutch, uses tobac co; he was bought at his own particular request, and was to have had his liberty in three years.—
Whoever will deliver him to THOMAS COR
NELL, at New-York, or to ELNATHAN H. SEARS, Mamakating, Sullivan county, shall receive the above reward.

May 7th, 1811.

12

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away in October last, a yellow man, by the name of PHILIP, 22 years old, about 5 feet 7 inches high, broad shouldered, stoops very much in his walk, one of his little toes has been cut off, speaks English and low Dutch, uses tobac co: he was bought as his own particular request, and was to have had his liberty in three years. Whoever will deliver him to THOMAS COR NELL, at New York, or to ELNATHAN H. SEARS, at Mamakating, Sullivan county, shall receive the above reward.

May 7th, 1811.